Classroom Expectations

Levels of Behaviour

All teachers will develop a plan for Supporting Positive Behaviour in their classroom based on the Levels of Behaviour model.

Levels of Behaviour is a framework used within the classroom that engages students with teachers in developing common understandings and language of behaviour and consequences. The purpose is to re-engage students, not to punish them. The framework facilitates the following outcomes:

- Shared understanding of class purpose
- Explicit understandings of behaviours that support class learning
- Explicit understanding of behaviours that impede learning

Use of the framework assists teachers to facilitate positive behaviour in the classroom and effective and efficient management of inappropriate behaviour. The Levels of Behaviour framework is consistent with the Department of Education principles and ethos and incorporates effective practice in positive behaviour support.

In implementing the Levels of Behaviour in the classroom, all teachers will jointly construct with students a simple class purpose. Following this, a discussion is held to classify acceptable or unacceptable classroom behaviours. To support class management and decision making, the behaviours are displayed visually on a Levels of Behaviour Chart which will include:

- Green behaviours – appropriate/expected behaviours
- Rewards for green behaviours
- Yellow behaviours (mild) and their consequences, usually low key classroom management skills
- Orange behaviours (moderate) and their consequences – may include in-class timeout
- Red behaviours (severe) and their consequences – usually administration notification

This process is not linear – as soon as the student re-engages or corrects their behaviour, they are immediately regarded as displaying green (expected) behaviour.

Teachers make explicit the range of behaviours and consequences attached to each level. The key is to support the green behaviours.

Recording Classroom Behaviours

It is essential that clear and efficient recording systems are in place in each and every classroom and for specialist sessions.

- Green behaviour – no recording required
- Yellow behaviour – no recording required
- Orange behaviour – recording required – the method of recording needs to be accessible if required by all teachers of the class and the administration. All teachers will either record on behaviour slips (stored in the class) or use a behaviour log book and note the date, time and general points/details of the behaviour (stored in class).
- Red behaviour – Serious Classroom Behaviour Form to be completed by teacher and sent with the student as soon as possible after the event.

Playground Expectations

Levels of Behaviour

All teachers will follow the whole-school plan for Supporting Positive Behaviour in the playground based on the Levels of Behaviour model. Staff should use their discretion when dealing with younger students or those with diagnosed or imputed disabilities.

Recording Playground Behaviours

- Green behaviour – no recording required
- Yellow behaviour – no recording required
- Orange behaviour – recording required – complete Playground Behaviour (Sit Out) Slip and place in the box in the staffroom at the end of the duty period
- Red behaviour – recording required – Serious Playground Misbehaviour Form to be completed by duty teacher and sent to the office with the student (when possible) or as soon as possible after the event.

Recording Serious Misbehaviour – Red

Serious misbehaviour (classroom or playground) details will be added to the school's electronic records at the discretion of the Leadership Team.

Individual Behaviour Plans (IBP)

If a student is experiencing difficulties in regulating their behaviour, an Individual Behaviour Plan will be created to support the student in making positive choices; and support the development of the student's skills in regulating behaviour. All staff members will be made aware of these for playground duty purposes.

Documented plans to address behaviour must

- Be negotiated between school staff, students and where possible, the parents/carers;
- Reflect the age and developmental needs of the student and consider the context in which behaviours occur;
- Clearly describe the desired behaviour/goals of the student;
- Outline both positive and negative consequences required to shape the desired behaviour;
- Outline changes required to the learning environment to support the student to modify their behaviour;
- Outline other support available to the student and how this can be accessed; and
- Contain a review process to assess, change and modify the plan.

Risk Management Plans

Risk management plans will be created by school staff for the following reasons:

1. Where a student's behaviour is considered to present a physical risk to the safety of staff or students. This will be documented and be included in the student's documented plan addressing behaviour.

The risk management plan must include

- A summary of the student's behaviour and the risk it presents;
 - The known antecedents to the behaviour and strategies which de-escalate this behaviour;
 - Strategies which are in place to support staff to manage the risk and advice as to how they should access this support;
 - An outline of the other resources required to manage the student's behaviour; and
 - And outline of the method of communicating this plan to staff.
2. Following a student disclosure of suicidal behaviour or non-suicidal self-injury, school staff will devise and implement strategies to monitor and manage potential risk while the student is at school.

The risk management plan will include

- The foreseeable circumstances where a student may be at risk of harm.
- Strategies to reduce the risk.
- Detailed information that allows the plan to be individualised as required.
- Information on how the plan will be reviewed and at what stage the plan will cease.

Bullying

Edgewater Primary School is committed to providing a safe and caring environment that fosters respect for others and does not tolerate bullying.

Definition of Bullying

- Bullying is an ongoing act of aggression causing embarrassment, pain or discomfort to another.
- Elements of bullying include – wanting to hurt someone, acting on this desire, the action is hurtful, an imbalance of power, no reason for the action, is persistent and the bully gets pleasure from hurting the victim.
- It can be planned and organised or it may be unintentional
- Groups or individuals may be involved

Definition of Bystander

Bullying also involves students who may not be directly involved in the bullying nor are they directly bullied. They are referred to as bystanders. A bystander is someone who sees the bullying or knows that it is happening to someone else.

Definition of Cyber Bullying

Cyber bullying involves the use of information and communication technologies such as email, text messages, instant messaging, social media and websites to engage in the bullying of other individuals or groups. This technology provides an alternative means for verbal, relational and psychological forms of bullying.

Strategies to Deal with Bullying

Students can

- Tell the bully to stop. State quite clearly that the behaviour is unwelcome and offensive.
- Seek help. Talk about it to someone they trust. There is nothing so awful that they can't talk about it with someone.
- Report it to a teacher. The school does not tolerate bullying and they need to feel confident that any incident can be resolved satisfactorily.

Bystanders can

- Care enough to do something about it, whether it affects them personally or not.
- Early intervention can defuse a situation before it gets out of hand.
- Report it to a teacher.

Staff will

- Adopt positive classroom management strategies and incorporate anti-bullying messages in the curriculum.
- Provide positive role models for students.
- Actively counteract bullying behaviour.
- Respond appropriately to any reported incidents of bullying.
- Be obviously present during recess and lunchtimes when they are on duty as a deterrent to possible incidents of bullying in the playgrounds.
- Communicate with parents/carers as appropriate about bullying incidents.

Parents/carers can

- Be aware of signs of distress in their child.
- Assist them to discuss the problem with a teacher.
- Discourage any planned retaliation, either physical or verbal, if their child is bullied.
- Contact the school if they believe their child is being bullied.

Mobile Electronic Devices Policy

Rationale

An increasing number of parents/carers wish to provide their children with mobile phones for safety, security and/or emergency. This policy details the conditions under which mobile phones and other electronic devices are permitted.

The bringing of mobile phones and electronic devices to school is discouraged, unless there is a very compelling reason to do so.

Guidelines

- Students will only be permitted to bring a mobile phone on to the school premises for safety, security or emergency purposes (ie to contact parents after school).

- In order for a student to bring a mobile device to school, parents/carers are required to write to the Principal requesting permission for the child to have a mobile device at school.
- Mobile devices must be turned off during school hours, and are to be handed in to the office before school begins and collected at the end of each day.
- Mobile phones may only be turned on out of school hours.
- While at school, students are the responsibility of school staff and the Department of Education. Any instances that require emergency contact with parents or carers MUST be through the appropriate staff member or a member of the administration, who will make any call to parents/carers that is required.
- Phones/electronic devices are not to be used by other students.
- The school does not accept responsibility for any theft, loss or damage of mobile phones or electronic devices.
- The device is not to be used for inappropriate purposes (ie students are not to take photos or videos on any mobile electronic device on school premises).
- School electronic devices must only be used with the permission and supervision of a staff member.

Inappropriate Conduct

It should be noted that it is a criminal offence to use a mobile electronic device to menace, harass or offend another person. Hence, students with these devices must not engage in personal attacks, harass another person, or post private information about another person using SMS messages, taking/sending photos, videos or objectionable images, and phone calls.

Students using mobile devices to bully other students will face disciplinary actions as sanctioned by the Leadership Team.

Sanctions

Students infringing on the principles noted above will have their mobile phone/device confiscated and secured. It will be taken to the office and be kept secure and the parents/carers of the student informed. They may collect the device at their convenience.

Any incidents of inappropriate behaviours through the use of mobile phones/devices will result in disciplinary action as applied by the Principal. The Principal may then withdraw permission for the student to bring a mobile phone/device to school for a set period or permanently.

Weapons and Illegal Substances

These items are not to be brought on to the school site by students and will be immediately confiscated and the administration informed. Parents/carers will be informed and appropriate actions discussed and implemented.

Teachers will be mindful that even fake items should be dealt with in a similar way.

Re-entry After Suspension

For a student to return to class after a period of suspension, a re-entry meeting is required where the parent/carer, designated school personnel, along with the student, are present.

As a result of the re-entry meeting a behaviour plan will be documented indicating the actions and strategies to avoid a further period of suspension and to assist the student to make better choices in the future.

Good Standing

At Edgewater Primary School, we believe learning is enhanced in a positive, inclusive, collaborative and caring environment. The Good Standing Policy supports this belief by acknowledging and rewarding exemplary behaviour, attendance and work ethic. It also emphasises the importance of taking responsibility for negative choices students may make which ultimately affects their learning and the learning of others.

All students have the status of Good Standing which is indicative of Green Behaviours (expected behaviours). If the student exhibits Red Behaviours (unexpected serious behaviours), the Leadership Team will inform the student of the loss of their Good Standing status for a period of one week – Kindergarten to Year 2 - and two weeks – Year 3 to 6. At the discretion of the Leadership Team, this may result in a loss of privileges (for example, Year 6 fun day, incursions, in class non-educational activities), and during this time a return to Green Behaviours is expected.

Parents and carers of students who are in danger of losing their Good Standing will be informed in an attempt to avoid the loss.

Students who demonstrate ongoing Red Behaviours may lose Good Standing status for the following reasons:

- Any incident resulting in suspension.
- Two incidents during the term resulting in withdrawal to the office (during class time).
- Three incidents during the term resulting in detention (during break time - playground).
- At the discretion of the Leadership Team and in consultation with the staff member concerned.

At a meeting between the parents/carers, a member of the Leadership Team, and the student, strategies, goals and support for reinstatement of Good Standing status will be discussed and documented.

All students who have Good Standing will have this acknowledged in their student report.
